

Patricia A. Migliore

December 4, 1938 - February 6, 2016

Patricia A. Migliore, 77, of Butler, died peacefully surrounded by her loving family on Saturday, February 6, 2016.

She was born December 4, 1938 in Drexel Hill, PA, the daughter of the late Albert and Mary (Brehm) Dowling long time residents of Butler. She was raised in Connoquenessing and attended Butler High School.

Patricia attended nursing school at Mercy Hospital in Pittsburgh and spent her long career providing compassionate care to the sick. She was married to Dr. Salvatore Migliore in 1960. Together they raised six children in Pittsburgh.

She was a loving mother and grandmother. She was perpetually kind, uncommonly generous and provided endless smiles and laughter that warmed and comforted all in her presence. Pat's final request of us all is to "show your love for each other daily."

She is survived by her six children, Salvatore (Chris) of Reston, VA, Debra and Lisa (Ken) of Pittsburgh, Tina (Tony) of Rochester, NY, Michael (Kristina) of Willmington, DE and Francesca of West Palm Beach, FL; 10 grandchildren; and a brother, Albert of Butler.

She is pre-deceased by her parents and her former husband, Dr. Salvatore Migliore.

Visitation with the family will be held at Young Funeral Home, Ltd., 127 W. Jefferson St., Butler, on Friday, February 12, 2016 from 6-8PM. A funeral mass will be held on Saturday, February 13th at 10AM at Holy Sepulcher Parish, 1304 E. Cruikshank Rd., Butler 16002.

“ Aunt Patty, being around you and your family, to me, meant fun times filled with laughter, great hugs, and lots of love. My parents, Ed and Pat Dowling, always talked of you with great affection. I've attached a picture of you three in Ireland back in the 1990's. My mom being Patricia Dowling by marriage, liked to tell us how you would lovinly tell her that you were "The Original Patty Dowling". Two and a half years ago, my dad moved here (Ohio) to be closer to his grandgirls, Shannon and Kasey, and I had the pleasure to help him, along with the rest of your PA cousins, Charles and Jean Dowling and Anne Marie Dixon, come visit you these past two summers, which, again, was a time full of laughter, crazy adventure stories, as my sister Colleen alluded to in her tribute, and lots and lots of love with great hugs. (Nobody wanted to leave). We will miss you, but know that you are resting in God's loving arms.

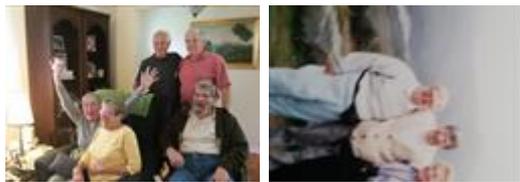

Love you,
Kelliann Dowling Linberg

“ I will always love Patty. She made me feel welcome in her home, when as an 18 year old girl, i set out to spread my wings and go away to school in Pittsburgh. She even made my parents and me, Pat and Ed Dowling, laugh and see the bright side of the little bitty legal issue I got into while there (those of you who know me know... lol). Patty always made me feel like a friend and told me wonderful and funny stories about my parents (before me) and her crazy exciting adventures with her brother Albert. Sometimes she made me laugh so much i almost fell down. She was so kind, sweet and loving to all. Patty you are cherished dearly and will be missed greatly. I wish you peace and rest in God's the loving arms .

Until we meet again.

Love you,

Colleen Dowling
