“ This is my grandpa. I loved him like a best friend, he was a better dad too me then my own dad. I miss you grandpa. House is empty without you. Mom cry's a lot.

He was funny and made me laugh, him and mom helped me with homework. He helped me write a whole book thing from his memory. He didn't need to read my history book. He actually lived in the ancient 1970's and 1980's. He would know all kinds of math stuff.

My mom makes incredible meals and we always ate at the table as a family. Grandpa's meal prayers made dinner feel special. He taught me to play cards and Christmas parties at the Italian club with my family we're amazing

“ These are photos from greenview gardens apartments. Sometime in 1995-2002.

My father Albert Zanella Jr. Is holding my parrotkeet Snow Flake. He loved my little bird and helped me train her.

My Dad got a job as a cook and dishwasher at the runway restaurant by Butler airport in Butler Pa 16001.

He'd bring home all sorts of amazing foods and treats from there.

I love you Dad. I'll forever love you. You're my Rock and I'll always need you forever
