

Amie Ann Alwine

August 27, 1985 - December 25, 2013

Our little darling, Amie Ann Alwine, 28, of Butler, passed away unexpectedly on Christmas Day, December 25, 2013 at UPMC Presbyterian.

She was born August 27, 1985 in Butler, the daughter of Chester and Gerry (Spahn) Alwine of Butler.

Amie enjoyed life, caring for the elderly and working at Serene Valley Golf Course. She loved spending time with family, her nephew, Patrick and dining out with her best friend, Ron Rome. Amie enjoyed watching movies and going camping with her family. She was an organ donor and was able to help others at the time of her death.

Surviving are her parents; a sister, Angie Karenbauer; a brother, Russell Baptiste, Jr.; 2 nieces and 2 nephews; grandma, Delores Alwine; and a number of aunts, uncles and cousins.

She was preceded in death by her grandparents Joan and Alfred Alwine and Anna Margaret and Elton Spahn.

A private memorial service will be held.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to the family in care of Young Funeral Home, Ltd., Box 1522, Butler, PA 16003.

“ Dear Family,
I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one and send you my sincere condolences. The passing of a loved one can leave us feeling lost and heartbroken. But I've found very comforting words in God's word, the Bible. At Psalms 55:22, God promises to sustain those who throw their burden upon Him. God will also do away with death all together as brought out at Revelation 21:4. The bible also holds out the hope of a resurrection of those who have fallen asleep in death at Acts 24:15. May Jehovah, the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our trials (2 Corinthians 1:3,4), comfort you in your time of need. Heartfelt prayers are with your family.

Angie - you have my deepest sympathies in the loss of your sister. No one, but no one can understand unless they have been thru it.
