“ Andy coached youth baseball when I was growing up. He was in his late 20s at that time. He continued to give his time and talent to the Butler community for the rest of the healthy days that God gave him. He loved sports and he loved helping young people. A life well spent. Thank you, Andy.

“ Andy was my neighbor on East Fulton Street. He was such a wonderful man and such a caring son. The thing I remember most about Andy was his collection of Hot Wheel cars. RIP Andy!
