

Betsy R. Adamosky

January 26, 1951 - September 8, 2025

Betsy R. Adamosky, 74, of Butler, passed away on Monday, September 8, 2025, at her home.

She was born January 26, 1951, in Butler, the daughter of the late John and Grace (Johnston) Slocum.

Betsy loved her horses and Pomeranian dogs, and she was an avid reader. She enjoyed spending time at the family camp in Kane, PA, as well as attending car cruises with her husband. She had been a hair stylist by trade and owned Betsy's Permanent Place Salon for over 25 years.

Surviving are husband, Frank R. Adamosky; her children, Frank M. (Beth) Adamosky of Butler, Troy R. (Candi) Adamosky of Butler, and Michele (Mike) Musko of Butler; and her grandchildren, Katelyn, Amanda, and Courtney.

She was preceded in death by her parents.

Private service and burial.

Tribute Wall

KA

“ My grandmother was my best friend, my rock, and my shoulder to cry on when I felt like the whole world was against me. I will continue to keep your memories alive. I'm so glad you're not suffering anymore. I hope you're causing all kinds of ruckus and you keep on shining up there! Running around in a meadow of wildflowers and horses and a bunch of sunshine and catching butterflies. I don't know what I'm gonna do without you. You're everything a grand daughter ever needed I love and miss you so much! I will watch and help pap out as much as I can I promise. I will see you again soon.

Much love,
Katie did ❤️

Katelyn Adamosky - September 09, 2025 at 02:14 PM

BT

What a wonderful tribute to you grandma, Katelyn. She would be sooo proud of you. I am soo sorry that you are going through this sad and difficult time. ❤️🙏❤️. Mrs Taylor.

Beverly Taylor - September 09, 2025 at 04:32 PM

RL

Grandma left a beautiful legacy to her family, very touching tribute, she lived a good life & was well loved.

Renee Larry - September 10, 2025 at 07:42 AM