“ Such a tragic thing to hear. I haven't seen Brad for many years, but back in the day we were pretty good friends. He was always the fun loving, happy guy you liked to be around. According to comments from his close friends, he has not changed much from the young fun loving guy I knew him as. To his children, and family, my deepest regrets for the loss of this great man in your life. He will always be with you as you. God bless.##imported-begin##Tim Shook##imported-end##

“ Kay, Terri, Linda, Carla and Family,
You all are in my prayers. Brad and I shared the same Birthday and he was the first to wish me a Happy Birthday on Facebook. He said all the best people were born that day. He always had a great smile right along with the best attitude that anyone could have. He loved his family and friends and will definitely be missed by all. God rest His Sweet Soul !

“ Dear Wardle Family,
I read about the loss of your loved ones “ Bradley ”. I know you will miss her very much.
I know there is little that can be said at this time that will make the pain go away. I read a brochure on Hope for our loved ones that have died. It has comforting words from the Bible. The url address is

http://www.watchtower.org/e/we/article\_00.htm

I hope that this brings you and your family some comfort. If I can be of any further help please feel free to write me.

Sincerely
