“ Brian was such a good friend-always there to listen and help with my problems. What a great dad to his kids, who were his main concern. Who would have thought that a recent bike ride to cousin Cathy's house with him would not only be our first but also our last. What a great time we had and a very special memory that I will always have of a wonderful friend. I will certainly miss him. Herman##imported-begin##The Pardo Family##imported-end##
