One of my fondest memories of Carol was when her, Ellen, and I went shopping for prom dresses. It was such a special time and I am glad she was happy to share that with me. We will miss you always!

“ Carol was always like another mother to all of us in Robinettes. She shared our triumphs and our failures, our laughter and our tears. When we would take ourselves too seriously she would do something so silly and outrageous we couldn't help but lighten up. Thank you so much, Mama Carol. We love you and will miss you.
