“ Carroll had a difficult journey in the past three years and now is at peace and pain-free.
Mike and I have had many joyful memories in our visits with Sam & Carol. I always enjoyed admiring all her unique decorations for all the special holidays.
She will be dearly missed by our family.
Carroll may you be soaring around in a bright red Jeep in heaven!

Carol and I grew up in West Sunbury and went through all of our years of school together. We had so much fun growing up in that small town.

As years went by, we didn't see much of each other, but when we started having class reunions, Carol was always there to lend a hand. We always enjoyed her stories of her dogs and the vehicle she would be driving...mostly it would be a Jeep.

She will be fondly remembered by so many and may she rest in eternal peace free from her pain. Fly high, Carol.
