“ My deepest sympathy to the Lewis family. I did not know Carolyn personally but while visiting this site I saw a picture of her and she looked so friendly I just had to write. I pray that this family will find comfort in the promise Jesus himself held out in the bible that all those in the memorial tombs will come out! What a joyous time for Carolyn and all those who love her. Until then let fond memories and the comforting words from the scriptures help you through this difficult time.##imported-begin##Angela##imported-end##

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy on your loss. I worked with carolyn at Butler Hospital many years ago. I haven't seen her for many years. I think of her every time I put my earrings in since she pierced my ears for my while I sat on a garbage can on 2 North at the hospital. We were both young and adventurous then. I thought about contacting her many times, but regret that I didn't. She was such a special person who I will remember fondly. I have a picture of her, Jim and Beth on my couch the last time they visited. Beth was a toddler. God bless you all!##imported-begin##Linda Cribbs Beatty##imported-end##
