

Chester E. Dietrich

July 27, 1989 - October 17, 2015

Chester E. Dietrich, 26, of Fenelton, passed away Saturday, October 17, 2015.

He was born July 27, 1989 in Butler, PA, the son of Carl O. Dietrich and Mary (Bowser) Dietrich.

Chester loved Jeeps, anything outdoors, guns, riding stunt bikes and camping. He especially enjoyed spending time with his family and his nieces and nephews.

Surviving are his father, Carl O. Dietrich of Clintonville; mother, Mary Dietrich and her companion, Luke Cypher of Fenelton; 3 sisters, Kitzie (Mike) Steinhiser of Hilliards, Brandi Spencer of Butler and Darlene (Mike) VanTine of Butler; brother, Matthew (Naomi) Dietrich of Amsterdam, Netherlands; 10 nieces and nephews, Dustin, Linden, T.J., Olivia, Danika, Joey, Nevaeh, Izabella, Kixton and Emily; paternal grandmother, Cynthia Dietrich of Punxsutawney; and best friend, Robert Ortz of Butler.

He was preceded in death by his Maternal Grandmother, Mary Bowser and step-father, Dennis McDeavitt.

Friends will be received at New Beginnings Free Methodist Church, 316

Center Ave., Butler on Tuesday, October 20, 2015 from 4PM until the time of the Memorial Service at 5PM with Pastor Dana Perkins officiating. A dinner will immediately follow the service.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to Young Funeral Home, Ltd., Box 1522, Butler 16003 to help with funeral costs.

Previous Events

Visitation

OCT 20. 4:00 PM - 5:00 PM (ET)

New Beginnings Free Methodist Church
316 Center Ave.
Butler, PA 16001

Service

OCT 20. 5:00 PM (ET)

New Beginnings Free Methodist Church
316 Center Ave.
Butler, PA 16001

Tribute Wall

CH

“ I miss you Chester, words can't describe how much. We were best friends for almost two years. Along with Amanda and B. We love you so much. I wish we could have been just as close for a bit longer. I will never forget the time I was wasted and even though you were very exhausted, you stayed awake with me for the next three hours. We were just friends always but we cuddled for that three hours and you talked to me. We poured our hearts out and had absolutely the most meaningful conversation we have ever had. You calmed me down, held me and helped me get through it. All of the parties. All of the driving around in your stupid Jeep! Haha I miss you buddy. Words cant express how much. You will forever hold a huge piece of my heart and I will seek you out in Heaven so I can have it back. ?? I love you friend, brother.

Chelcei - October 21, 2015 at 09:00 PM

Darlene
Vantine

“ Chester was my only younger sibling. I'll never forget the times we spent together as the only two children in the home after our older siblings moved out, we truly bonded with each other. As young kids we were the two always outside. Chester loved being outside, riding bikes, hunting, fishing, and just walking in the woods. Over the years, I realized how many people loved him, and I wondered why he struggled so much. His support helped my relationship with my husband grow stronger. He was always our biggest fan! I'll never forget how he'd give us his input when we'd have a fight and he'd tell us we had to work it out because we are meant to be together. He was a special person to many people and loved by more than I think he knew.

So I guess now, I have to say "c-ya" as I imagine to bump your fist one last time and hear you say "c-ya sis, I love you" in my head over and over everyday.

Until we meet again. I hope you are expecting the biggest hug!

Darlene Vantine - October 21, 2015 at 06:32 PM

AC

“ I met Chester when I drove school van and gave him a ride home his senior year. I will never forget picking him up the day of "Senior dress up". He came walking to my van in a "blow up" suit. I didn't recognize him at first and when he tried getting into the van we both laughed so hard. It was a laugh I'll never forget and a young man I'll never forget as well. Chester had a charm that made you happy to be around him. I looked forward to seeing his smile everyday and having a small chat with him. Rest in Peace Chester, you will live on forever in the hearts and memories of everyone who loved you!
Amy Curry

Amy Curry - October 20, 2015 at 12:32 PM

“ Still can't believe your gone. I miss you and think of you everyday. I wish I could of said goodbye to you. We had our ups and downs but we always had each other. I love you and will miss u everyday for the rest of my life. Always and forever! I love you rip chester <3

Mandy Edgington - October 19, 2015 at 10:31 PM

“ so many memories of the good times we all had together have been playing in my head non stop since I heard the news... I still don't really even believe it... RIP chester, you will be never be forgotten <3

Sarah Brown - October 19, 2015 at 07:21 PM

“ 67 files added to the album LifeTributes

Jeep®

Young Funeral Home - October 19, 2015 at 01:53 PM

“ so many memories, but the one that keeps sticking out for me is ever since we were little Chester loved the thrill of things. He would find the biggest hill around and ride down it on his bicycle. Before he would leave he would always say wish me luck in case I don't make it back! I would laugh it off and hold my breath till I know he was safe. Now I know he is finally safe in God's hands. Chester was my first childhood boyfriend and friend for many years after that. So weird I just started talking to him again like maybe 2-3 weeks ago. He got ahold of me on facebook to catch up. He told me of his recent struggles and told me he was trying to do better, be better! Chester had such a big heart! Still in shock! Rlp buddy !

Rachel KAthryn - October 19, 2015 at 12:12 PM