“ *To the family of Christine,
I have been delivering the Butler Eagle to Mrs. Keller for almost 15 years now. She was such a breath of sunshine each time i saw her. She was always outside either mowing, doing her flowers or garden. She always greeted me with a smile. Such a sweet soul. I will miss her dearly. You all have my deepest heartfelt sympathy. Heaven has gained another Angel for sure!!*

“ There are so many good memories. Chris was like another grandma to me and my sisters. She always had something for us kids when her and Tom would visit. She definitely loved purple and I will never forget her as long as I see that color.
