“ I am sorry for your loss. Please be assured that with God's mercy, Christine, like so many others who have fallen asleep in death will have the chance for a resurrection as the Bible says at Acts 24:15. May the God of comfort, comfort you and your family in your time of grief.##imported-begin##Evelyn Hall##imported-end##

“ Dear Tom and Family, We are all so sorry for your loss..Christine was a remarkable woman who will live forever in our hearts and souls. She stood up for what she believed in, she nurtured a loving happy family..I always looked up to Christine because she said and did the things in life that are so important. Simple things, meaningful things..I remember how Christine would never come to practice or a game with Nathaniel without bringing other kids..I never ever heard her complain!Every year she would buy tons of food and have an end of the season BarBQ, she would invite the entire team over. My Son Michael was lucky enough to have Nathaniel and your family take him on vacation, he learned to ski that week and Christine gave me a wonderful photo album, one that I cherish with all my heart..Even after leaving NJ, Christine would write me and send me pictures of Nathaniel , what a wonderful friend! As I sit here I pray for the strength and courage you will need to go on without her here. My Son Michael thought the world of Christine, Tom Nathaniel and family..I will be smiling when I think about them reuniting in heaven! I'm so sure they have already. Michael passed in 2002 and I cherish the thought of him meeting his friend with open arms in heaven. I couldn't be with you all today but know I am sitting here in prayer and saddened by the loss of a very strong, stubborn, delightful woman..Thinking of you all..May God Bless each and everyone of you..##imported-begin##The Reisenweaver Family##imported-end##

“ I express my sincere condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. I found comfort in what Jesus said at John 5:28,29, when ever I read this I think oh what a joyous time! Until then draw close to God in prayer and he himself will sustain you. Psalm 55:22##imported-begin##Angela##imported-end##
