“ I worked for CO in his taxidermy shop in the early fifties. I had a lot of fun there especially working in the "hide" room. He stayed in touch with me through Vietnam and after and visited me with his family at Ft. Benning, Ga. in the sixties. He taught me how to shoot both a bow and a gun and even tried to teach me how to box. That always ended up with my nose getting smacked. He was really a great guy as was his dad.
