“ I’m so sorry for my”adopted family” the Hassler’s. I spent soooo much time in my adolescence in their house, going to church with them that I became an integral part of their weekend and summer routines. Never once did Connie chase me home and she always treated me like a son with warmth and love. I still see that smile, hear her voice, and hope I can always feel her hugs. I hope you look down at us and are proud.... we are of you! Hugs to above
