“ *God saw you getting tired
and a cure was not to be.
So He put His arms around you and whispered, "Come with Me."
With tearful eyes we watched you slowly fade away.
Although we loved you dearly,
we would not make you stay.
A golden heart stopped beating, your hard-working hands put to rest, God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.*

Rest in Peace, love tommy###imported-begin####imported-end##

“ What Cancer Cannot Do:

*It cannot cripple Love
It cannot shatter Hope
It cannot corrode Faith
It cannot destroy Peace
It cannot kill Friendship
It cannot suppress Memories
It cannot silence Courage
It cannot invade the Soul
It cannot steal internal Life
It cannot conquer the Spirit*

“ For a dear friend of mine,
I saw from the beginning what a tough battle you had before you. You really never let your illness show or gave up your spirit and will to live. You showed braveness, courage and kindness up to the end. I will miss all the fun times we had and I will miss my coaster riding buddy and all things left undone. You will always remain close to my heart as a very good friend as my best friends husband.

“ Dan...
We know that you are finally at peace now and away from all the pain of the cancer world that you fought so hard to break away from. You were such a good family man and the hardest worker we have ever seen. Please watch over all of us and espically the 2 people that loved you more than life itself and stood by you and never left your side during the toughest battle of your life...your wife & daughter, Carol & Leeanna.
Until we meet again, Godspeed Danny and rest in the angel's arms.###imported-begin####imported-end##

“ Dear Carol, Leeanna and McDonald Family,
I read about the loss of your loved one “ Daniel ”. I know there is little that can be said at this time that will make the pain go away. I read a brochure on Hope for our loved ones that have died. It had comforting words from the Bible. Others who have lost loved ones share their feelings and grief.
