

David A. Bell

August 30, 1953 - January 2, 2012

David A. Bell, 58, of New Castle, PA passed away on January 2, 2012, at the VA Butler Healthcare Hospital.

He was born on August 30, 1953, in Youngstown, Ohio, the first son of Fred K. Bell and the late Dwanda E. Bell, who passed away Aug. 18, 2003.

He served in the U.S. Navy after graduating from the New Castle School of Trade in 1972, and worked for several years as a skilled machinist at Youngstown Tool & Die Co. He also served as a volunteer fireman in Lowellville, Ohio, for several years while raising his family there. He had many talents and enjoyed playing his guitar, camping & fishing with his family.

He will be sadly missed by his children Leslie (Bell) Starkey of Asheville, North Carolina and his son David A. Bell Jr. of Boone, North Carolina. His first wife, Marie Bovo Weaver, also resides in Boone, North Carolina.

Also surviving is his second wife, Vicki Bell, whom he married on Nov. 23, 1997, and their three sons, Christian J. Bell, Jared M. Bell, & Nicholas S. Bell of Sharon, PA, who have many memories to cherish. They will always remember their weekly movie nights at the theater with their dad as a special time.

He has three grandchildren: McKayla Bell, DaLayna Bell and Carter Starkey.

He was preceded in death by his sister Crystal L. Bell but leaves his brothers Steve Bell of Alabama, Brian Bell of West Pittsburg, Douglas Bell of Harrisburg, PA and sisters, Beth Ann Kos of West Pittsburg, Lori Passalinqua of Raleigh, NC, and Bonnie Hedlund of New Castle. His grandmother Helen Dripps Vuletich resides in Youngstown, Ohio. Many aunts, uncles, nieces and nephews will miss him.

Pastor Fred Baer, a long-time friend, will be officiating a memorial service for friends and family at Victory Christian Center's New Castle campus at 1421 Sampson St., New Castle, PA 16101 on Saturday, January 7, 2012 at 11:00AM.

Arrangements by Young Funeral Home, Ltd., Butler, PA.
