“ Hey Mike first off I don't feel right calling you Mike your my dad, my father, and my role model and friend! I know we had our differences and I just wish I had said so much more to you. And that you were here today to see my accomplishments and where I'm at today and it's all because of you and the footsteps of your I followed. I know own my own successful construction company and it's all because of everything you taught me. I love you DAD and I'll never forget you !

“ Mike I'm mad that your not here. I've ask myself a thousand times what you'd want me to do.. I wasn't done fighting with you yet lol. I think of our younger years and how you would show up out no where and always had my back no matter what. Your damn heart was bigger than your head. I wish I could talk to you one more time. I know your at peace now and your happy your with Kegal but that doesn't make it any easier.
