

David William Niedenberger

August 11, 1942 - July 14, 2022

David William Niedenberger, 79, of Butler, passed away Thursday, July 14, 2022 at his home.

He was born August 11, 1942 in Pittsburgh, the son of the late Joseph and Margaret (Boyle) Niedenberger.

David was a veteran of the US Air Force, having served during Vietnam. He had worked at Eichley and Stevens Painton Corporation for many years. He enjoyed building model airplanes, solving crossword puzzles, and most of all spending time with his grandchildren - Ezra, Oliver, Luna, Theodore, and Jovi. Surviving are his wife, Sherry Niedenberger of Butler, two daughters, Janet (Christopher) Brown of Sarver and Jenna (Joshua) Novotny of Saxonburg, as well as their five children, mentioned above. He is also survived by his sons, Mark Niedenberger and Doug (Carrie) Niedenberger along with their two children, all of whom live in Texas.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his sister, Janet, and his grandson, Finley Huv.

Private services and burial.

Tribute Wall

DA

“ Dear Ray, Marian, and all the family,

*I'm still shocked when "young" people of our generation pass on!
"Once upon a time [we] looked so fine, didn't [we]?" I often think about our good times together over 50 years ago, and picture us still the same. My prayers are with you for consolation, for David's eternal happiness, for stalwart hope for whatever the future brings us.*

Peace, David Carey

David - July 21, 2022 at 03:10 PM