

Delores G. Sales

February 27, 1948 - February 27, 2021

Delores G. Sales, 73, of Lyndora, passed away Saturday, February 27, 2021 at Butler Memorial Hospital.

She was born February 27, 1948 in Butler, the daughter of the late Arthur Anderson and Anna Mae (Talifero) Anderson.

Delores graduated from Butler High School in 1966, and then from Jersey City School of Nursing. She started her nursing career at Butler Memorial Hospital and then retired from the Butler VA Medical Center after 29 years. After retirement she decided to go back to work part time for Personal Touch. She was a very dedicated member of North Street Christian Church. Most people knew her by "Dee", and she always seemed to know someone everywhere she went. She was a very giving person, and greatly enjoyed volunteering in the community. She was a volunteer at the VNA Hospice in Butler. Dee enjoyed Bingo and fishing.

She is survived by her daughter, Melissa (Umar Faruq) Sales of Holbrook, NY, and her granddaughter, Maelyn Lipka, of Holbrook, NY, who was her pride and joy. She is also survived by a sister, Carolyn Robertson of Boston, and a brother, Gerald Anderson of Lyndora. She is survived by her "2nd Mom", Geraldine Glover Turner of McKinney, TX, as well as by several nieces and nephews.

Delores was preceded in death by an infant son, two sisters, Yvonne Cook, and Thelma Joyce Anderson, and also three brothers, Rodger Wynn, Clyde Anderson, and Gregory Anderson.

Burial and internment will be private. There will be a celebration of life in her honor at a later time.

“ Melissa prayers and love to you and the family. Dee was a great cook I ate many meals at your house before you born. She's the only person I ever knew who could make a great pot roast (yum yum) on top of the stove.

“ I was always a little bit intimidated by Dee. I think it was her direct manner. I met her when I was 4 years old. She was a kind woman with a big heart and a snarky wit. To this day, no one makes grits that pass my inspection. Dee's were the best. The world is a little darker now that's she's no longer in it.

“ Dee was such a joy in our church family. Her favorite was singing praises to her Lord. I sat right behind her and she always had a smile and kind words. We will all miss her. She is home now, where we will someday all get to spend eternity together. Praying for comfort for the family and all who loved her. Paula Bauer

“ Praying for you Melissa and Maelyn Dee loved you both so much. May God bring you comfort in this time. She was loved by all of us at church. Will be missed. We hold onto the hope that through Jesus death on the cross and forgiveness of sin his gift to all , we will spend eternity in heaven with her.

“ Dear Melissa. Really shocked to hear about your mother's demise. We pray that God grant her all His Grace's. She is certainly beyond the wordly sorrows . She will live our hearts for ever. Please accept out deepest sympathies. We pray that God give you courage to bear this tremendous loss. We are all with you dear Melissa. We are here for you always. We pray for you and your mother and the whole family. God be with you. Remember God takes the loved ones but also give us the courage to bear the loss. This God,s will. He will take care of you and the family. With our love. Bina and Faruq
