“ The world is a lesser place without Diane. We worked together at the Country Fair for years, and she was a beacon of light and laughter for everyone who worked with her. I know she had some burdens in her life, but she had such a large heart and so much love for everyone, she could change lives. I am going to miss her, and I wish the family the best during this rough time.##imported-begin##Paul Steven Bevington##imported-end##
