

Dolores J. Diamond

March 1, 1927 - March 15, 2020

Dolores J. Diamond, 93, of Butler, passed away Sunday, March 15, 2020 at St. John's Specialty Care Center in Mars.

She was born March 1, 1927 in Pittsburgh, the daughter of the late Claude Christian Buttgerreit and Dorothy (Zebrine) Buttgerreit.

Dolores was a member of St. Luke's Lutheran Church where she enjoyed being a greeter, card ministry and telecare. She was also a member of Saxonburg Women's Club. She retired from DuCo Ceramics as a keypunch operator after 33 years.

Surviving are her daughter, Monica (Shan) Perry of Butler and her son, Chris Diamond of Butler; two grandchildren, Chelsea Perry & Zane Perry of Butler; sister in law, Shirley Buttgerreit of Harwick, PA.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, George H. Diamond , Sr., her sons, George H. Diamond, Jr. and Thomas J. Diamond and her brother, Roland Buttgerreit.

Service will be held at St. Luke's Lutheran Church, 330 Hannahstown Rd., Cabot at a later date and time due to the corona virus.

Private committal service for family at the St. Luke Lutheran Church Cemetery, Cabot, PA.

Contributions may be made to the St. Luke's Lutheran Church, 330 Hannahstown Road Cabot, PA 16056.

Tribute Wall

AN

“ Anita Negley lit a candle in memory of Dolores J. Diamond

Anita Negley - March 20, 2020 at 09:15 AM

AN

Dear Family

Dolores was a wonderful friend and "St. Luke Sister". She always had a kind word and smile. We received many cards of well wishes and encouragement through out our friendship. We have missed her and will miss her but are so happy to have known her. She spoke so often and lovingly of her family! We pray you feel the loving arms of Jesus comforting you during the days and weeks ahead. God Bless You, Joe and Anita Negley

Anita Negley - March 20, 2020 at 09:27 AM