

Don J. Shook

December 8, 2005

Don J. Shook, 81, of Butler, died Thursday, December 8, 2005 at Butler Memorial Hospital after a short illness.

He was born Tuesday, February 5, 1924 in Center Twp., Butler Co., PA, the son of the late Cecil Shook and the late Margaret Adams Shook.

He attended Butler and Claytonia Nazarene Church. He was an Austin Bantam car enthusiast and well known for being a craftsman and handyman. For 22 years, he was a plumber for R.W. McDonalds and then worked as a self-employed plumber.

Surviving are 1 son and 2 daughters, Mrs. Ira (Karol) Houk of Butler and twins, Donna Fay Merritt of Butler; and Don R. Shook of York; 8 grandchildren, 9 great grandchildren, 2 great great grandchildren; 4 sisters, Marge Fisher of Slippery Rock, Dolly Shook and Velma Shook, both of Chicora and Betty Elliott of Butler; 5 brothers, Albert Shook, Dennis Shook, Carl Shook and Melvin Shook, all of Butler and Dale Shook of West Sunbury.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Adeline M. Fehl Shook who died Sept. 21, 1997, 2 sisters, 2 brothers, and a grandson.

Friends will be received from Noon to 3 PM and 6 to 8 PM on Sunday at the Young Funeral Home, Ltd., Butler, PA. There will be visitation at 10 AM until the time of the service at 11 AM at the Church of the Nazarene of Butler, 4410 Oakdale Road on Monday, December 12, 2005 with Rev. Robert Calhoon officiating.

Interment in the West Sunbury Union Cemetery.

Contributions may be made to a health care charity or church of the donor's choice.

Tribute Wall

“ Don and Adeline are part of my fond memories during my "growing up years" here in Butler. I remember our families getting together for those great weiner roasts and other fun visits. To Karol, Donna and Don, our thoughts and prayers are with you. Take comfort in knowing that your Dad's spirit is with the Lord.##imported-begin##Russ Kummer##imported-end##

---

December 08, 2005 at 12:00 AM

“ I am very sorry for your loss.##imported-begin##Watterson Family##imported-end##

---

December 08, 2005 at 12:00 AM