

Donna Gilliland

September 17, 1942 - June 19, 2013

Donna Jean Neville-Gilliland, 70, of Naples, FL passed away on June 19, 2013.

Born in Rochester Pennsylvania on September 17, 1942, Donna graduated from Beaver Area High School in 1960. A couple years later she married Gene Thomas Miller and mothered three wonderful children, Scott, Matt, and Debbie, who gave her seven grandchildren and three great grandchildren. Donna worked at Armco Steel as a Lab Tech for 20 years to support her family. She then married Floyd Lewis Gilliland in 1982 and moved to Naples, FL in 1996.

We will always remember her as creative individual who was always working on a new craft and constantly making us laugh. She cared about her family more than anything and was blessed to meet the friends God sent to her. Preceding her in death are her parents, Edward and Opal Neville and her husband, Floyd Lewis Gilliland.

Friends will be received from 10:30AM until the time of the memorial service at 11:30AM on Saturday, July 13th at Young Funeral Home, Ltd., 127 W. Jefferson St., Butler, PA 16001.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be given to Avow Hospice, Naples Florida.

“ Scott, Matt, Debbie, I am so sorry to have read about your Mom. I am sure you don't remember me but when you three were little kids you lived in my parents rental home while your Mom and Dad were looking for a home to buy. We all thought so much of Donna she was such a beautiful person pretty eyes that sparkled she was always doing something. I want to send you each a card but don't know where you three are living at. To you and your family may I extend my sympathy, and may you find peace and comfort in your memories of your Mom. We have a lot of good memories of your Mom when you lived next door to us on Highfield Road. Jeannie Mazurick and Babs Richardson
