“ I have not seen my grandmother for many years, but I have learned more about the 'power of prayer' from her than anyone else. She told me more than once, I pray for you every single day, and I would tell her, I know grandma, I feel them. I am also a Christian now because of those prayers. I know I am a child of God and I know I am going to heaven! My grandmother is one of God's kids and He will say to her "job will done!" She was the perfect example of what one of God's disciples should be.
I love you grandma!

“ My wife and I are friends of Larry and Peggy Jordan. The wonderful friendship has spanned a period of many years. My mother, whose first name was Dorothy, was a resident of the nursing home in Bellefontaine, Ohio where Larry's mother also resided for the past several years. They became good friends, attending the weekly Bible studies together and visiting with each other on occasions throughout their years of friendship. On several occasions, Larry and Peggy, along with his mother, would join my wife and me, along with my mother, for a "double date" at the local Bob Evans restaurant. The nursing home staff seemed to enjoy seeing us go out for the double dates with our mothers! Our memories of Dorothy recall her love for her Lord and desire to please Him with her life. She is now with her Savior and we rejoice in that truth!

“ *Dorothy is my great-aunt on my mom's side. My mom was named after her, i was told. I didnt meet Dorothy until my mom was terminally ill, back in 1989. We kept in touch ever since through cards and letters. She has been such an inspiration to me and was always on my mind. I know she is in Paradise with God..
Condolences to the family.*

“ *I will miss you Grandma. Our families were spread apart by miles for most of our lives, but I always knew you were out there, and thought about me as often as I thought about you. You couldn't be with us to watch over, so you asked the Lord to help. That gave me peace. I love you Grandma, I hope you're in the presence of the Lord and Love and all those you've been missing. Most of all, I hope it's all you thought it would be and more.
Your Granddaughter, Melody. Larry and Peggy, Ronnie and Marilyn, Art and I send our deepest condolences.*
