“ Hi to the the entire Oesterling family 🧑🧑! My memories of Edith go back to the days we moved to Saxonburg. Mom and I joined Girl Scouts!! Edith was the greatest whether we were having a meeting in her home or out camping. Always had something great happening in her house!

“ Growing up from about 9th grade, Nancy was my best friend. We spent many sleepovers at each other's homes. My best memory of Nancy's Mom was her home made bread. It was the first time I ever had home made bread and every time I stayed, I enjoyed it, especially when Edith made a sandwich and packed it for school lunch...yumm...thanks, Nancy, for being my friend and sharing your Mom. Condolences to you and your family. Love you.

“ Robb has wonderful memories of growing up with cousins and playing at the house on Saxonburg Road. Although he did not have you for his Sunday School teacher he liked being able to tell people that Mrs. Oesterling was his aunt. Aunt Edie always made me feel part of the family at large, the delicious food she would make for family reunions held at the Grange. Aunt Edie always had a quick smile, quick wit and joyfulness in her heart. We send our sympathies to Linda & Greg, Nancy & John, Bruce & Cheryl and their extended families. God of comfort be with you all.
