

Elenor Jane Fleming Mishler

April 27, 1923 - September 10, 2008

Elenor Jane (Fleming) Mishler, 85, of Slippery Rock Twp, PA, died Wednesday, September 10, 2008 at Grove City Medical Center after a long and difficult struggle with multiple myeloma.

She was born Friday, April 27, 1923 in Dayton, PA, the daughter of the late Dr. Edward L. and Augusta Maude Fleming.

She is a graduate of the University of Pittsburgh, Pitt's Medical School and Pitt's Graduate School of Public Health.

She practiced medicine professionally under the name Dr. E. Jane Fleming. In her career, she served as medical director of the Pittsburgh public schools, and later as associate director of the Allegheny County Health Dept.

Surviving are her husband, Fred Mishler, whom she married on July 16, 1949; a daughter, Patricia & her husband Daniel Wolfe of Houston, TX; a son, David & his wife Vonda Mishler of Slippery Rock Twp, PA.

She was a member of Slippery Rock Methodist Church and Eastern Star. Her interests included golf, bridge, travel, sewing, quilting and the love and care of animals.

There will be no public visitation. A memorial service will be held at 1 PM Saturday, September 13, 2008 at Young Funeral Home, Ltd., 127 West Jefferson St., Butler, PA with Rev. Pamela Gardner, pastor of Slippery Rock Methodist Church, officiating.

Contributions may be made to the American Cancer Society, 320 Bilmar Drive, Pittsburgh, PA 15205 or an animal shelter of your choice.

Information available at www.youngfuneralhomes.com

Tribute Wall

“ Dave Mishler,

*My sincerest condolences. I am unable to attend the funeral.
However, you are in my thoughts.*

*May the Lord bless your home and family; may He immediately strengthen your heart with peace and love; may His Spirit walk alongside you and shine his grace and glory in your life.
Declared in the name of Jesus.*

Tom Braunstein##imported-begin##Tom Braunstein##imported-end##

September 10, 2008 at 12:00 AM