

Elijah David King

April 8, 2005

Elijah David King, 5, of Butler, went home to his Maker at 6:40 AM on Friday, April 8, 2005 at his residence. Surrounded continuously by family, Elijah courageously battled neuroblastoma for 25 grueling and heart-wrenching months. His light never faded, fire never lowered, heart grew stronger and brought family together. Mended and broken he showed strength, spirit and courage. He will be missed!

He was born Friday, March 31, 2000 in Butler, the son of Albert King and Jonel Browning.

Surviving are his maternal grandparents, Les & Cheryl Browning of Panama City, FL; a sister, Chanelle King of Penn Hills; 3 brothers, Channing & Albert King of Penn Hills and Dante' King of Butler; 9 cousins, Brianna, Matthew, Alysis, Isaiah, and Ruri Browning and Charlie Rose Fine & Joshua Fine Jr. all of Butler, and Leena Spivey & Aaron Spivey Jr. of Pittsburgh; 2 infant cousins, Angel & Geronimo; and a number of aunts and uncles.

He was preceded in death by his paternal grandparents, Albert & Edna King; his great grandfather, William Kamerer; great grandparents, Olga & Charles Browning; and an uncle, Aaron Spivey.

Friends will be received from 7 until time of service at 9PM, Monday, April 11 at the Young Funeral Home, Ltd., Butler, 127 W. Jefferson St.

Private burial.

Contributions may be made on behalf of Elijah to Young Funeral Home, Box 1522, Butler, PA 16003.
