

Eric R. Stewart

October 10, 2005

Eric R. Stewart, 34, of Butler, PA, died Monday, October 10, 2005 at his residence.

He was born August 6, 1971 in Butler, PA, the son of Phyllis Cangji Stewart of Butler and John E. Stewart of Butler.

He attended St. Paul's Catholic School and was Catholic by faith. He was a 1990 graduate of Butler High School where he received the most talented art student award. He also graduated from the Art Institute of Pittsburgh in 1994. He was a very gifted artist and was well known in Butler for his talent. He was an avid Steeler fan and wanted to be remembered for his smile. He owned and operated Stugotti's Tattoo Studio in Indiana, PA.

He was forever loved by his family and friends. Surviving are his parents; 2 brothers, John J. Stewart and his wife, Sharon, and James P. Stewart, both of Butler; a sister, Mrs. Jeff (Vicki) Reidenbach of Butler; a niece, Heather Stewart of Butler; a nephew, John P. Stewart of Butler; and several aunts and uncles.

He was preceded in death by his brother, Marty Stewart, who died November 30, 2003, his maternal and paternal grandparents and a cousin.

Friends will be received from 2-4 and 7-9 on Thursday, October 13 at the Young Funeral Home, Ltd., Butler. Mass of Christian Burial will be held at St. Paul's Catholic Church on Friday, October 14, 2005 at 10AM.

Interment in the Butler County Memorial Park.

“ I know that I gave my condolences once, in person. With it being Thanksgiving, I wanted to reiterate how very sorry I am for your loss. I also wanted you to know that Stoo is constantly on my mind and in my heart. I suppose that I am writing to say that I'm thankful for having met Stoo/Eric; he was and still is the source of many smiles. Honestly, he was the most unique, beautiful person I ever had the pleasure to meet :) He's certainly impacted my life in ways I can't even begin to explain. I hope that you have a peaceful Thanksgiving and Holiday Season. My thoughts and prayers are with you.##imported-begin##Anna Ellermeyer##imported-end##
