“ I loved when our Grandma Allison used to tell me stories about when my dad, Uncle Bob and Aunt Sis were little. Evidently when Aunt Sis was young, she had very little hair and always wanted to wear an "lbbon". Grandma couldn't find any that would stay in her wisps of hair. This created somewhat of a snit with Aunt Sis jumping up and down saying "I want to wear an ibbon!" I'm not sure if she ever got that wish. It's funny how Aunt Sis started out with a lack -o- locks and dad and Uncle Bob ended up that way.

“ My aunt Sis always made sure I had enough food to eat. I once took a trip to Florida on spring break with several friends. We were driving down and no one had any money. Sis made a big roaster of fried chicken for us to take along. After driving for about 15 or more hours everyone smelled like fried chicken. I don't think we ever got the smell out of my buddies car. I sure loved that lady!

*To Family and Friends,
Though I know that this is a difficult time for you, may you be comforted by the hope found in God's inspired word the Bible. John 5:28,29. And Rev 21: 3,4 . These give hope of a future resurrection and the complete elimination of death,, pain and mourning . Under Jesus' kingdom rule we have this and much more to look forward to.and.those promises come from Jehovah and will be realised soon. For more scriptural encouragement please go to www.jw.org.*
