

Frank St. Charles

July 5, 1927 - November 12, 2012

Frank St. Charles Jr., 85, of East Butler, passed away Monday, November 12, 2012 at Sunnyview Home in Butler, PA.

He was born July 5, 1927 in Louisville, KY, the son of the late Frank and Elizabeth (McClain) St. Charles.

Frank was a member of Faith Fellowship Alliance Church. He was an avid Bible reader and loved archeology, science fiction and sailing. He was a hydraulic technician for U.S. Army Corp. of Engineers for 37 years. Frank was a devoted father & grandfather.

Surviving are his daughter, Mrs. Gary C. (Theresa) Evitt of East Butler; 3 grandchildren, Joshua D. & wife Melissa Evitt of Toccoa, GA, Gershom M. and wife, Stephanie Evitt of Butler and Abigail E. Evitt of Butler; and great granddaughter, Raelin Sophia Evitt.

He was preceded in death by his parents and a sister.

Private services and burial.

Contributions in memory of Frank may be made to the Faith Fellowship Alliance Church, 200 Faithway-Fared Dr., Butler, PA 16001 or to the family.

Tribute Wall

“ Terry, and family, please accept my condolences. Frank was one in a million. My days spent visiting him probably did me more good than him. God bless you and your family for the love you demonstrated, the great care you gave him. I will never forget his great smile and wisdom. Respects, Matt##imported-begin##Matt Andrews##imported-end##

November 12, 2012 at 12:00 AM