“ Fred was a good guy. I first met him when he started servicing our typewriters and selling office machines to Knoch High School. (What I initially liked about Fred was his professionalism and no nonsense way of operating his business.) Always a gentleman and a kindhearted fellow, he loved doing some of the same things I like to do--sharing a meal with friends and family. Although I could say I wish I would have spent more time with Fred, I'm grateful that he and I shared time together every now and then. Please accept my sympathies on his passing.

“ Mary Lu, Fred was a special person to the Kushnereit family. We remember you both coming to the pig roasts. Good eating and good friends! The one thing my girls and I won't forget about Fred - he wore the best cologne. He smelled awesome! Fred was a person who would give you the shirt off his back - caring and lovable. You both will be in our thoughts as you move forward. Be strong for your family. Love, the Kushnereits
