“ I was so sad to hear of George’s passing. I went to school at Connoquenessing Elem. with George from 6-8th grade; then at Butler High Shool for the remainder of school. Quite a few years ago we had a reunion at Connoq park with all our classmates from 8th grade. My husband remembers all the funny stories George was telling. Raccoons getting into the garbage and putting bungee cords on the lids etc,etc. So funny! 72 is way too young to be taken. 🙏 Sherrill Johnston Casholler and Husband Paul

“ No matter how old I am, no matter how old or sick he became, my Dad was always the smartest, strongest, best Daddy in the world. My Dad was so kind to everyone, loved his family deeply, and loved God with his heart and soul. He loved my husband Rob like he was his own son, and adored my daughters. This world lost a great man, but I know he’s pain and cancer free in Paradise with Jesus, my mom and others he loved who went Home before him. For those who have asked, there will not be a service. Dad always said if you don’t come visit me when I’m alive, don’t come see me when I’m dead. He had a sharp wit and a great sense of humor, and always had a tale to tell. He will be missed by many.

“ George and I have been friends for over 50 years. I can truthfully say I've never had a better friend or known a finer human being. There has to be a special spot reserved in heaven just for George. I'm going to miss you buddy.

“ Dear Rose and Famiy...I am so very sorry for your loss. I have so many good memories of George, when Evelyn & I visited at your house. He loved to share his “bread machine” bread, his produce from his garden....along with his wisdom. So many chats .. so many snacks ... so much warmth and friendship ... so much love for his family & his grandchildren. I pray that all your wonderful memories of your husband, your dad & your pappy will bring much comfort in the days ahead. Thank you, George, for your friendship. Midge

“ RIP George. What a great friend and person George was to know. It was so heartwarming to watch him with his grandchildren and the love he showed them. Tim and I will always be grateful to George and Rose for how welcoming they were to Tim and I to their home. Rest well my friend. Know that we are all better off having known you.
