

George B. Ligus

April 26, 2004

George B. "Squeeks" Ligus, 75 of Butler, died Monday, April 26, 2004 at his son's residence in NJ.

Born May 25, 1928 in Butler, PA, he was the son of the late Michael Ligus and Mary (Sopp) Ligus.

He was a member of St. John's Byzantine Catholic Church. He was in US Army having served in Korean War and a retired Captain of the PA Army National Guard. He remained an active member of the Lyndora American Legion Post 778, VFW Post 249 and Highfield Golf League. He retired from Pullman Standard in 1985.

Surviving are his daughter, Georgia Anne Ligus; a son, Michael Joseph Ligus Sr.; 2 grandsons, Michael Joseph, Jr. and Andrew Ryan; 2 sisters, Helen Meaders and Marianne Rudiak; a cousin, Jule Stadnik of Gary, IN; a sister-in-law and brother-in-laws, Virginia L. and Ralph G. Ferguson and Alan C. Ferguson; Sister-in-law Marcia Ligas, Several nieces and nephews, and great nieces and nephews.

Preceding him in death were his wife, Bonita V. (Ferguson) Ligus whom he married June 27, 1964 and who died January 10, 2003, 3 brothers and a sister, John Nicolas, Richard and Annie.

Funeral Liturgy will be celebrated at the St. John's Byzantine Catholic Church, 105 Kohler Ave. Lyndora, on Friday, April 30, 2004 at 10 AM with Rev. Dennis Bogda officiating.

Military honors at graveside by Army National Guard Co. A 128th FSB.

Interment in Rose Hill Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations to Holy Trinity Monastery,