

George Findley Simpson

January 18, 2005

George Findley Simpson, 69, died January 18, 2005 at his residence in Hubert, NC after a lengthy battle with cancer.

He was born April 18, 1935 in Natrona, the son of the late Louis O. and Anna (Wylie) Simpson.

He was a 1953 graduate of Freeport High School. He retired from the US Marine Corps as a Master Gunnery Sergeant with more than 30 years of service. He had been wounded in Viet Nam. His love of sports had him managing Marine base baseball teams.

Surviving are his wife of 41 years, Shigeko Fukuyama Simpson; three sons, Robert Simpson of Locust Grove, VA, Troy Simpson of Fayetteville, GA and Thomas Simpson of Gulfport, MS; three sisters, Mrs. Ronald (Joy) Howard of Ligonier, Carol Shaw Kremer of Sarver and Mrs. Russell (Lois) Doerr of Sarver; four grandchildren; and a number of nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents and his brother, Louis "Bud" "Shorty" C. Simpson.

Services were held Friday, January 21, 2005 at Jones Funeral Home in Jacksonville, NC. Burial with military honors were held at Coastal Carolina

State Veterans Cemetery.

Information available at www.youngfuneralhomes.com