

Glenn S. Wilson

July 3, 1927 - May 30, 2008

Glenn S. Wilson, 80, of Butler, died at 6:57 PM on Friday, May 30, 2008 at Allegheny General Hospital, Pittsburgh from complications due to a accident at his home on May 20, 2008.

He was born Sunday, July 3, 1927 in Pittsburgh, PA, the son of the late Glenn Leslie Wilson and Naomi Walters Wilson.

Glenn was a member of St. Paul's Catholic Church. He was a Navy World War II veteran. He belonged to Victory Lodge # 694, New Castle Consistory, Syria Shrine and it's Harige Clown Unit. He very much enjoyed his time clowning. He retired after 39 years of service as an inspector from Armco Steel.

Surviving are his wife, Mercedes Hackett Wilson whom he married December 14, 1951; 1 daughter, Dawn DePasquale and son-in-law, Rob DePasquale of Pittsburgh; twin sons, Richard and his wife, Amy Wilson of Butler and Glenn and his wife, Donna Wilson of Zelienople; 2 granddaughters, Nicole Wilson of Butler and Megan and her husband, P.J. Kenyon of New Sewickley; great-granddaughter, Macayla Kenyon of New Sewickley; 2 step grandchildren, Barbie Parsons of New Brighton and Bill Rose of Parker, and a sister, Mrs. Richard (Doris) Kirkwood of Delaware.

Private service and burial.

Contributions may be made to the Syria Shrine Transportation Fund, 1877 Shriner's Way, Cheswick, PA 15024-1075.

Arrangements and information available at www.youngfuneralhomes.com

Tribute Wall

“ *Deepest sympathies to your family.
I did some business with Max years ago and found him to be of high intelligence and integrity.
His brother Rich is a good friend and a role model. They are reflections of a good family.*

Rich Inman - February 17, 2020 at 03:38 PM

“ My husband and I want to send our sympathies to the Wilson family. Mr. Wilson was a kind and warm person. He looked at the world with an optimistic eye. He'll be missed. All our love.##imported-begin##Bonnie & Keith Mitchell##imported-end##

May 30, 2008 at 12:00 AM