“ Gram,

We are all having an awful time still with your death . It's like we are all wishing it was a nightmare instead of reality . Thanksgiving has passed us by and it was not the same without you here . Now Christmas is approaching and I don't know how we are all going to do it . I am

Missing you so bad I still cry at night and just push though the days without you . Life has no meaning and not the same without you . I am no longer sure if I trust in religion because you and pap pap were taking from me . It's not fair with others who are here and tourment people and you and pap pap never bothered anyone .. I miss you so much and would give anything to be with you again . Miss and love you ., please send a sign that you are somehow with me still I feel so alone without my gram .

“ Gram,

They say time heals all things but, no amount of time will ever heal me from losing you or pap pap these last few years . I miss you and pap pap very much . It's been a little over a week since we put you to rest and it feels like 5 years . I miss you so much . I miss talking to you everyday! I miss your laugh .. I miss seeing you ! This is so hard for all of us not having you with us cause you did everything with us all for so many years . We don't know what to do without now . As great momma always said after pap died I am a man without a country . That is how I feel now without you and pap pap. Life is not the same . I see people laughing with their family's when I am out and wonder why can't I have you here to do the same ? It's not fair ! I never thought you leave me ever ! I will say it again i would give anything in this world to have you back with me .. and also pap pap too ! Life is so hard to do now without you both . I try but it is soo hard to be normal again cause without you nothing is right . I love you and miss you please know I never forget you or pap pap .. I truly am sad 😭 without you both .

“ Gram,

*I love and miss you very much and can't believe that you are gone. The day my mom told me you left all of us I was so upset I couldn't breath. You and I were always together and I will never forgot you . You and I did everything together, how am I going to live without you ? I know you are with pap pap and great momma and pap and in a better place but my world is not a better place now . The world died when you when left me. There is no looking forward to talking to you everyday and laughing about our silly jokes . There is no waiting to see you or going out to eat . The world is just empty.
I can't stop thinking about how I will never see you again and be able to share things with you. Life is not fair .. I miss you and love you . I would give anything to have you with me and the family again*
