“It's difficult to put into words what this sweet and caring lady meant to me. She brought such light and happiness to our family and I will always remember her smile. I'm blessed to have called her Aunt and am so grateful for all the times we shared during her visits. As a child I loved when Aunt Goldie and Aunt Carol would visit because it seemed to just liven up our home. There was much love and humor among my mom and her sisters and I'm so very glad my daughters were able to know this amazing lady. You will be sorely missed Aunt Goldie. I know you are smiling and carrying on with my dad and Uncle Sonny right about now though:) See you on the far side of the sky someday! Love and hugs to Pat, Barb and Dean - wish we lived closer to know one another better. Know that you all are in my prayers.
