

Helen Cook

June 1, 1936 - October 16, 2008

Helen L. Cook, of Butler, age 72, passed away on Thursday, October 16, 2008, after a long illness. She was born in Harrisville, West Virginia, on July 1, 1936, to G. Omer and Lila Berdine Morris. She was preceded in death by her husband, William T. Cook. She is survived by two brothers, David O. Morris of Butler, and Paul C. Morris of Albuquerque, New Mexico. She is also survived by three children, Timothy (and Sarah) Cook of Centerville, Ohio, Pamela (and William) Smith of Cedar, Michigan, and Linda (and Larry) Eaton of Christiansburg, Virginia, seven grandchildren, and a number of nieces and nephews. At her request, there will be no visitation or funeral service. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the Patient Assistance Fund of the Richard Laube Cancer Center, 1 Nolte Drive, Kittanning, PA 16201. The family appreciates the care and compassion of the Laube Cancer Center staff, especially Dr. Diane BuchBarker and Judy Walter.
