

Helen "Lucy" Domhoff

February 7, 1932 - May 5, 2008

Helen "Lucy" Domhoff, 76, of Butler, PA passed away on Monday, May 5, 2008 at Good Samaritan Hospice in Cabot.

Born February 7, 1932, in Butler, she was the daughter of the late Clarence and Lillian (Hockenberry) Fry.

Lucy was a lifelong member of St. Mark's Lutheran Church in Butler where she remained active in her faith and volunteering until recent months. She had been retired from school patrol in Butler following many years of service. Her life was rich with friends both local and nationwide as she enjoyed traveling with her husband and family over the years, as well as bowling, and homemaking. She was a pillar of strength with grace and kindness for all.

She is survived by her husband of 56 years, Lester P. Domhoff, Jr., of Butler; two daughters, Ginger and Timothy Rowan of Mars and Terri Patten and Ken Venmar of Butler; a son, David Domhoff and Nicole Boyle and son Tim of Queensbury, New York; two grandchildren, Justin Rowan of Shadyside and Lesley Rowan of Asheville, North Carolina; a sister, Bernice and Phillip Radwanski of Butler; two brothers Richard Fry and Harry & Judy Fry both of Butler; and numerous nieces, nephews, brothers-in-laws and sisters-in-law. She was preceded in death by her parents, two brothers, three sisters and several nieces and nephews.

Friends will be received from 7-9, Wednesday, May 7 and 2-4 and 7-9, Thursday, May 8 at the Young Funeral Home, Ltd., 127 W. Jefferson St., Butler. Services will be held at St. Marks Evangelical Lutheran Church, 201 W.
