“ I'm at Henry and Irene when I was 18 years old . They were a fun couple to spend time with. Irene would pick me up and we could go shopping and our relationship grew very quickly. We spent time with them helping out the at the Salvation Army. Went on vacations together. I'd have to say the best part of our relationship was watching and become parents and raising Sarah. We had lots of fun fun memories together that I'll always cherish. Irene was always laughing and giggling. She was a lovely person inside and out. You can see what kind of person she was just by looking at her wonderful daughters. May she now rest in peace with her husband Henry. I will forever keep their memories in my heart.

“ I met her as a little girl from the Salvation Army in Plainfield, that I know how much of an impact she and her husband will have on my life. They nurtured me in ways. I didn't know I needed it and they taught me about God and we're very active in my life. The impact she has had in my life has made me the officer that I am today. It was because of her that I fell in love with The salvation army and the importance of kids programs. My heart is broken missing on her here, but it is also happy that she is no longer suffering. I will forever. Love you

“ Biggest memory is Oct 21, 2008 when Major Irene joined my mom in the delivery room as I gave birth to her God daughter Emily and immediately lifted her up and gave her back to the Lord and thanked him for this precious life. You will forever be in my heart all the laughs and tears until we meet again in Heaven.
