“ Dear Judy, Jill and Tim,
I was very sorry to hear of your dad's passing. I have many wonderful memories of your dad. He always had a smile and was so soft spoken.

I hope you guys are doing well. It has been so very long since I've seen any of you. Maybe some day we can get together.

Love,

“ I want you all to know how sorry I am to know that Fred has left us. If there is any comfort in his passing, it is knowing that he has been re-united with your Mom. it's hard to believe so many years have gone by since our days together at Monroe. Those were truly special times, from the Monroe dinner parties your Mom and Dad hosted, to the water skiing on the Clarion.

What a great guy - what a great family!##imported-begin##Sherry and Tom Young##imported-end##

“ I want you guys to know how very sorry I am about your Dad's passing. He will always have a very special place in my heart, as does your Mom, and the rest of you. Our vacations together were too few, but always an adventure! I love you all, Connie.##imported-begin##Connie (Emmons) Long##imported-end##
