

James E. Noblit

January 14, 1956 - July 12, 2018

James E. Noblit, 62, of Butler, passed away Thursday, July 12, 2018 at Allegheny General Hospital.

He was born January 14, 1956 in Ellwood City, the son of the late William J. and Josephine (Yanssens) Noblit.

James was a member of Springdale Lutheran Church. He was a veteran of US Army having served in Iraq during Desert Shield. He was a supervisor for JW & Fey Steel Fabricating. He enjoyed camping, fishing and family genealogy.

Surviving are his wife, Pamela (Williams) Noblit whom he married July 7, 1990; 2 daughters, Erica (Justin) Thompson of Boyers and Kristen Noblit of Butler; son, James Noblit of West Sunbury; stepson, David (Lesley) McGregor of Petrolia; 5 grandchildren; 2 sisters, Geraldine (Jim) Duncan of Irwin and Venza Whitlatch of Clintonville; a brother, Michael Noblit of Grove City and several nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his brother, William Noblit.

A memorial service will be held at Springdale Lutheran Church, 1061 Mahood Road, West Sunbury, PA 16061, on Saturday, July 28, 2018, at 11AM with Pastor Karl Schoch officiating. Military Honors by VFW 249, Lyndora American Legion 778 and Butler American Legion 117 will follow.

Private interment.

Arrangements by Young Funeral Home, Ltd., Butler.