“ We are coming up on one year since we said goodbye and I can barely wrap my mind around that reality. It is so fresh in my mind the night you left this world before my eyes. I still can hardly breathe ...I still cry at the very thought of you and the knowledge that I can no longer just pick up the phone or see your face. This year has been awful and yet through you ...because of you....I have come to so many blessings . I don't know what the second year is going to be like..I imagine it won't be much easier. But that's OK....we are OK...just like we told you we would be :) I miss you so much it hurts...daily. I'm so proud I had you as long as I did ! I love you Papa...

“ Jim,
I've tried so many times to get on here and put into words what I want to say, but I just can't seem to find the right words.

Gosh, I knew you over 36 years....most of my life. I remember the vacation to Niagara Falls and all the fun we had. Renting the motel with the waterbeds because we didn't have them at home, only to find both yours and Mars room and ours didn't have heat in the waterbeds and we slept in our clothes and jackets that night.... All the cookouts, birthday parties, births of the kids, deaths in our families, we shared them all.

When your best buddy and I got divorced, it was as hard on you and Mar as it was on me. You both helped me get through it more than you know and when Tom came along, you accepted him even though I knew it was hard for you thinking you were betraying your other friend. You will never know how much all of this has meant over the years.

We will try our best to look over your family, especially Marla as your family is and always will be a part of our family. Even though I am very sad at your passing, I am thankful you do not have to suffer any more. Much love to you and we will meet again, I am sure of it.

No worries my friend, no worries.....

*Love ya
Holly*

“ In Loving Memory of Jim Redick

*God saw you getting tired,
And a cure was not to be,
So, he put his arms around you and whispered "Come With Me"*

*With tearful eyes we watched you,
And saw you pass away,
Ant although we loved you dearly,
We could not make you stay.*

*A golden heart stopped beating,
Hard working hands at rest,
God broke our hearts to prove to us,
He only takes the best.*

'No Worries"

*..... Rest in Peace Jim

“ I always will remember Hop (as I knew Jim by) as a guy who was so nice, cool as a cucumber, and always had a tendency to make you laugh! Our families spent a lot of time together growing up and I keep going back to the days of us kids singing together, picnics, birthdays, parties, and sad from here on out its going to be missing one great guy, but god got a great guy up in the big skies of heaven to look after his family and be their angel to help get them through this...love and miss you dearly Hop!

“ Uncle Jim , You will be greatly missed , as a kid growing up, I aspire to be the man you are, Father, friend to many and husband to your wife Marla . I can only hope I can become the man you are . I miss you and will always look back and think to myself how would he do this , or how i can get through this , you helped me the most when I lost my Mom and being the only father figure I ever had , You Inspire me to be that man i need to be , for my family , friends and myself. I love you and will always miss you . Your Nephew .Paul

“ my Papa.....any info anyone may be wondering about as far as services can be found here.....thank you to all of you for your words of sympathy and love.....this is not going to be easy.... i miss him terribly already.....WE miss him.....but my family and i KNOW that he now is at rest and no longer struggling to stay in this life. He has been very ill and please let me share a personal moment and assure all of our loved ones.....we were present and assured that his mind,body and spirit were at peace....as we were blessed enough to say with my father before his passing.....Our Father who art in Heaven, hallowed be thy name.....i love you and i shall never stop missing you.....thank you Lord and Papa for the honor to be present as you took your journey Home. We will see each other again....this i know...and i will be wearing that cross around my neck. Sofie and I love you Paw...no worries.....we will all be okay...rest healthy and peacefully. i love you .

“ Jim was like a second father to me. I remember our car breaking down on Christmas Eve. He came and picked the whole family up. Jim never went 1 mile over the speed limit, loved the icing on Stanley's Bakery cakes just as much as I did, and would've helped out anyone in need without thinking twice. He was into CB & Ham radios, helped my dad put up his huge tower twice, and had the kindest smile of any man I've ever seen. I love you, Jim. Prayers to Marla, Amber, who is like a sister to me, and the rest of Jim's immediate family.
