

James William Riley

September 5, 2010

James W. Riley, of Butler, PA, passed away at 11:06 AM on Sunday, September 5, 2010 at Butler Memorial Hospital.

He was born in Cambridge, OH, the son of the late Edward J. Riley and the late Martha (Wylie) Riley.

Jim was a veteran of US Air Force in WW 2 where he was a decorated tailgunner with 17 missions over Japan. He was a graduate of Salem College in Salem, WV. He started his teaching career in East McKeesport High School where he was the basketball and football coach. He then came to Butler High School as a basketball coach and taught social studies and American History retiring after his 42 year career. He also enjoyed golfing.

Surviving are his wife, Bonnie (Wingfield) Riley whom he married August 14, 1993; a daughter, 3 grandchildren, a number of nieces and nephews.

He was also preceded in death by his son, James W. Riley, Jr. and a sister.

Private services will be held at the Young Funeral Home, 127 W. Jefferson St., Butler, PA.

Private burial.

Tribute Wall

“ Oh Bonnie! We are so very sorry to hear of Jim's passing. Remember all your good times together and cherish them. May God be with you and help you thru this dificult time.
Love, Shirley & Edd###imported-begin##Shirley & Edd
Nicke###imported-end##

September 05, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ Sorry about the loss. Like the big trees in his front yard, Mr. Riley was part of the neighborhood. Chucky Moses.###imported-begin##Chuck Moses###imported-end##

September 05, 2010 at 12:00 AM