“ Dear Family,
I worked at Cleveland Clinic in the Transplant Department from 2007 to 2013 and Mr. Suzon was a very special patient of mine. I enjoyed talking to him when he called and came into the clinic for care. He, being a Pittsburgh Steelers fan, always teased me about the Browns. I even have a "terrible towel" that he gave many a few years ago and I will keep it always. My prayers are with you and your family at this time. Hold on to the special memories of Mr. Suzon.

“ I worked with Jim from 2002 thru 2006 at Cicci's in Finleyville pa . We hit it off from the start, He was very knowledgeable in the sewing field , The people at Cicci's loved him , He was a great coworker and a great friend , He was a sports fanatic and I believe thats why we got along so well .. In the later years after he left Cicci's we still talked often and he told me he was a proud grandpa , and that kept him going , Jim was a great man , I will never forget him, Rest easy my friend ... “ The first time I met Jim after we moved in he told me he was going to miss parking in my driveway. Not long after moving in, he would offer me his tools to use while remodeling. I soon realized he was just making room in his shed. Over the years we learned about each others prowess on the athletic fields. His was baseball mine was hockey. My favorite memory was him telling me every training camp that the Steelers or Penguins were looking for a player and if I was trying out. It became our signature joke. He would be a third baseman for the Pirates and I would play defense for the Pens. So many talks on the property line. He loved my son, my dog, and my wife (not always easy). He was my neighbor but even more he was my friend. I'll be looking for him, but smile and think of the good talks we had and what a pleasure it was to have him be a part of my family's life. Karl, Diana, Jaque Lutz and Diva.
