

James R. Walker

April 10, 1927 - June 5, 2009

James R. Walker, 82, of Renfrew, PA, passed away at 9:00 PM on Friday, June 5, 2009 at his residence.

He was born April 10, 1927 in Johnstown, PA, the son of the late Walter Walker and the late Della Mae (Redick) Walker.

He was a veteran of US Marines and US Army. Member of Methodist Church of Connoquenessing. He was a retired accountant at Armco Steel.

Surviving are his niece and caregiver, Charlann Plunkett; his granddaughter, Lanea and husband, Bryan Gilmore of Saxonburg; 3 great granddaughters, a number of nieces and nephews; and his sister, Eleanor Croyle of Sewickley.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Hazel J. Walker, who died 12/9/2004, and 2 sisters, Marjorie Riggelman and Dorothy Bowser and a stepson, Gary Miller.

Services will be held at Butler County Memorial Park, Monday, June 15, 2009 at 11:00 AM with Rev. David Panther of the First United Methodist Church officiating. Private burial.