

Janet D. Cypher

December 25, 2007

Janet D. Cypher, 75, of Butler, PA, died at 2:35AM on Christmas morning, Tuesday, December 25, 2007 at Sunnyview Home.

She was born Sunday, May 29, 1932 in Sharon/Farrell, PA area, the daughter of the late Guy Gully and the late Esther Stevenson Gully.

She retired as a Lab Manager from the Butler VA Medical Center in 2000. She attended Ohio Wesleyan College and graduated from Youngstown State University. She was a long time board member of the Ellen Gaiser Rehab Center. She was an avid reader, loved books, her friends and going to the beach.

Surviving are her husband, James D. Cypher whom she married in 1957; a daughter, Mrs. James (Loren) Sims of Claysville; a son, Steven Cypher of Cabot; 2 grandchildren, Ashley Victoria and J.D. Sims both of Claysville; and her long time companion, her dog, Pepper.

She was preceded in death by parents.

Friends will be received from 7-9, Thursday, December 27 at the Young Funeral Home, Ltd., Butler, PA. Private services and burial.

Tribute Wall

“ Loren, I am sorry to hear about you mother. Please contact me when you catch your breath, I would love to hear from you!

Kim Weber Stephenson##imported-begin##Kimberly Ann "Weber" Stephenson##imported-end##

December 25, 2007 at 12:00 AM

“ Janet was my favorite cousin. Being a few years older I always looked up to her. She taught me many things in life and always found time for me. I remember these times fondly and they were the best times of my life. I think of Janet every day and she will be missed terribly.##imported-begin##Sol W. Gully##imported-end##

December 25, 2007 at 12:00 AM