“ When things don't go the way we want and problems change our course, we can take a lesson from Jeanne B. More than one time, with strength, faith and conviction, she said, "Well, it's in the Lord's hands, it's O.K." Even when health failed, she found joy in loving her friends and family, taking a nap, and eating a little "Waddymellon". Heaven now resounds with a new voice to praise her Lord, and a few folks up there will be hearing "Watch it!" for the first time. We will all do well to remember the spirit and the words of this precious saint.##imported-begin##David & Linda Brown##imported-end##
