“ I worked with Jerry at Ibis for the past 6 years, he cleaned the building I worked in and would see him every morning and we enjoyed talking about different things. He had a lot of different stories and he was always telling me about what he saw in the paper for news in Butler. We laughed a lot and he always had a song that he would walk around singing. Jerry always would yell out my name when he entered the building which always brought a smile to my face. I was very saddened when I came into work Tuesday and was told that Jerry had passed. I will truly miss him and his happy attitude.

One of the songs Jerry would sing was Band on the Run. He had a certain way to about him when he sang it which always made me laugh. He always requested me to play it too. If there was a song he wanted to hear he would come to me and ask can you play this or do you know this one. It was a game for a while we would play,(like name this tune)

“ My sincere condolences to the Bennetti family. There is little I can say to ease your pain and suffering during this difficult time. May the fond memories of the times you shared bring you comfort and peace. We can look forward to the time when God will wipe the tears away from our eyes and swallow up death forever, found at Isaiah 25:8. My deepest sympathy to you all.

“ There wasn't a nicer, funnier, or good hearted guy then Jerry. He was a friend to many people ,and would do anything to help anyone out. He will be remembered as one of Lyndora's good guys. “ My dear brother, I cannot say good-bye, I prefer to say see you later. You were my birthday present for my 6th birthday and I loved you from that day forward. We never had the usual sibling fighting, but we often butted heads, only for you to have to realize in the end I was the one who was right! I cannot imagine a week in my life of us not talking or texting or seeing each other, this is still so surreal for me. I may never get to go have another drink with you, but I will toast you and miss you everyday for the rest of my life. I love you Jerry! Till I see you again,

Your loving sister Laurie
